Dennis Defeats Quinn In Third Round of Bout

Fort Kamehameha Man Gives Quinn Morpheus Tap for the Full Ten—Quinn Makes Good Showing in Early Round—Leblanc and Roberts Put Up Fast Exhibition—Chapman Fealy is Cheered By Thousands of Fans at Schofield Athletic Card

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.] SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, May 1.—The bout between the two heavyweights, Quinn and Dennis, at Schofield Barracks Saturday afternoon, was altogether too short to please the large assembly of boxing enthusiasts. Quinn took the count about half way through the third round, and Dennis, who was the better man, and several times had Leblanc on his knees taking the count. All credit is due to both these men of Battery C for one of the best numbers of the afternoon's entertainment. Even better was the four-round bout between Joey Leblanc of Battery E and Dewey Roberts of Battery C. They were evenly matched and were announced as weighing 135 pounds. Their exhibition was clever as well as earnest and was even more exciting than the first bout. "Admiral Dewey" Roberts, who substituted for John Dowling of the 2nd Infantry, showed the better form. Leblanc was almost always the aggressor, started the mix-ups, but almost invariably got the worst of the exchange of punches. Chavez Wins.

John Johansen of the department hospital was outclassed by Joe Chavez of Troop F, 4th Cavalry. The latter seemed to be heavier and had the advantage of a much stronger build. In the second round Johansen was down for nine seconds and looked like a goner, but he came back game as ever and stuck out the four rounds. He was just as good as Chavez in the third, but in the fourth was knocked through the ropes twice. He is one of the gamest little men that has ever been seen at Schofield. The Cooper-Martin bout lacked the pep and speed that had been expected and was not received with any great enthusiasm. Both of these men have appeared to better advantage in other bouts. Cooper seemed to have a slight advantage in the affair. He landed a stiff swing in the fourth that floored Martin, but did him no harm, for Martin was at him again before the referee could start to count. Swallowed His Gum.

Three exhibitions were given by members of the 25th Infantry, but all three lacked earnestness and failed to awake any great amount of interest except among the company partisans. Willie Johnson of Company G showed a little more aggressiveness than his opponent, Henry Jackson of Company H, but it was clear that both men were afraid of straining their friendship by making the other fellow mad. All that can be said of the Kelly-Wordlow match is that it was comical in spots, and came near ending in a tragedy, as Kelly swallowed a large wad of gum during the bout, and had to be assisted to the hospital, where the gum was removed.

W. O. Jackson and Frank Rochon, both of Company L, 25th Infantry, were permitted to go on as an additional feature. They renewed an old friendship and engaged in a hugging match that took very poorly with those who had come to see boxing. After the second round they were urged to continue the affair over at their barracks, and to let someone else have a chance in the ring. Music in the Air.

No small part of the entertainment was furnished by the 25th Infantry band, conducted by Chief Musician Leslie King. Some ragtime pieces in which the trombones were featured were hailed with a storm of applause. Lieut. Robert Sears of the 1st Infantry, refereed all the bouts except the last and handled them in splendid fashion. It was a record crowd that attended the "boxing Derby," as Chaplain

159TH COMPANY TAKE EXCITING GAME YESTERDAY

Defeat Pawaas in Close Game at Fort Ruger Field; Kaulhi Leads Hitters in Game

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.] FORT RUGER, May 1.—The 159th Company, C. A. C., and "Pawaas" aggregation battled for 11 innings in a hard-fought and exciting game on the Fort Ruger diamond Sunday afternoon. The soldiers finishing on the long end of the 8 to 7 score. Several errors were made by both teams; but they were mostly minor ones and the game was an exciting one from start to finish, the score being a tie at three different times and for a total of seven innings. Mabuha, who started the game for the visitors had no control of the sphere and was relieved by Williams in the third inning after four bases on balls and a three-base hit by Womack had sent three runs in for the soldiers. Williams pitched a good game, but the Ruger pluggers connected with his delivery quite often, landing three three-base, two two-base and five singles, which were all well scattered.

Stewart was on the mound for the "coasters," and while his control was a little off at times he pitched an excellent game, giving 12 hits, which were all singles except a double by Johnson in the third inning and 13 of the visiting batsmen were sent to the bench via the strikeout route. The soldiers won the laurels in the 11th inning with two out, when Stewart sent a clean drive to deep center for three bases and scored on a wild pitch by Williams.

The 159th Company team has been considerably weakened by the absence of Pitcher South and Shortstop McClain, who are both sick in the Department hospital at Fort Shafter, and their many friends and baseball fans at Fort Ruger are hoping for their early return to the post and the game.

Among the very amusing features of the entertainment were the announcements made by Chaplain Ignatius Fealy as each new pair of boxers stepped into the ring. These announcements were invariably followed by comments among the soldiers, many of which were overheard by the writer. Could Chaplain Fealy have heard these comments and remarks he would know beyond any doubt that his untiring efforts to furnish amusement to the large command at Schofield, not only by boxing exhibitions but in many other ways, are meeting with sincere gratitude and appreciation upon the part of the Schofield garrison.

MAKIKI MIDGETS WIN.

With Fred Rosa pitching sterling ball throughout the game the Makiki Midgets defeated the Japanese of Makiki by a score of 10 to 3. The lineup of the Midgets was as follows: Gordon Smith, c.; Fred Rosa, p.; Bob Burbank, lb.; Irving Blom, 2b.; Ernest Cook, 3b.; Thomas Carey, ss.; Bouldin Burbank, r. f.; Phillips Brooks, l. f., and Jackson, c. f.

BRAVES DEFEAT DRAYMEN WITH KU ON HILLTOP

The Braves defeated the Hon. Construction & Draying Co's baseball team yesterday morning at the Fort Armstrong diamond. The final score was 5 to 2.

The H. C. & D.'s used two pitchers, the first, Henry Ku, lasting only two innings; during which time the Braves scored all of their five runs. Errors on the part of the draymen and the inability of their catcher to hold the ball were the causes for so many runs. Bender, cousin to Chief Bender, then took the box and pitched excellent ball, allowing no runs, to come in during the rest of the game. Perry Family Busy.

J. Perry pitched a good game for his team, holding his opponents down to nothing for seven innings. In the eighth, with two men on base, M. G. Perry of the draymen lined out a two-bagger, sending his two men home and incidentally saving his team from a shutout.

The lineup follows: Braves—J. Perry, p.; W. Lee, c.; F. Silva, lb.; S. L. Silva, lf.; D. Phillips, cf.; A. Ornelas, rf.; H. C. & D.—Henry Ku, Bender, p.; Dickson, c.; Botelho, lb.; Bender, Henry Ku, 2b.; Marcial, 3b.; Kama, s.; M. G. Perry, lf.; J. Perry, cf.; M. K. Silva, rf.

THERE WILL BE LOTS OF TIMBER BUSTING AT Y. M. C. THIS WEEK

This Week's Y. M. C. A. Bowling Schedule.

Tonight—Cosmos vs. Service.
Tomorrow—P. B. C. vs. Triple A.
Wednesday—Honolulu vs. Cheechakos.
Thursday—All-Chinese vs. Oahu.
Friday—H. A. C. vs. Dormitory Club.

Tonight's Lineup.
Service—Reed, Stayton, Smith or Ackerman, McCutchen and Goebig.
Cosmos—Mosley, Benson, Van Deusen or Atherton, Chamberlin and White.

S. G. McCutchen and Chas. E. Goebig will roll their last matches on the Honolulu Y. M. C. A. alleys this evening, when the Service team meets the Cosmos in the Y Spring League. McCutchen, who is a member of the Signal Corps, has been called to service in Mexico and leaves by the Sonoma tomorrow afternoon. Goebig has been transferred to the Coast Artillery Corps in Maine. Both these men are among the best and most popular bowlers on the alleys and their many friends will regret to see them depart.

With both teams out to win on account of the rivalry between them, tonight's go should be a warm affair. Both the Service and Cosmos will have their best line-ups with Captains Stayton and Atherton in command.

Tomorrow the Triple A and P. B. C. bowl in the Club League, the former team rolling at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and the later at 7:30. The Honolulu meet the Cheechakos on Wednesday and the All-Chinese undertake to win a game or two from the crack Oahu Thursday. Friday's match brings the Dormitory Club against the H. A. C. in the club league.

SCHOOL TEAMS BATTLE TODAY IN OPENING TEST OF LEAGUE SEASON HERE

Play will begin in the interscholastic league this afternoon when Punahoa meets Mills on the Mills field, and Kamehameha battles with McKinley at Kamehameha field. Much interest is being taken in the games, and an enthusiastic crowd is looked for at both games.

In a practice game on Saturday Kam defeated Company M of the 2nd Infantry by a score of 13 to 7. Kaulhi and Lovell twirled for the winners and made a good impression. Kam did not show up so well with the stick but fielded their positions well.

St. Louis, who will play on Friday, succeeded in winning from Ehlers & Co. on Saturday by an overwhelming score. Baptista and Haysden worked for St. Louis and had an easy time with the dry goods squad.

WORLD'S RECORDS EQUALLED IN RELAY GAMES ON SATURDAY

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless.] PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—The results of the relay games at Franklin field on Saturday were as follows: Mile—Harvard, won; Princeton, second; Pennsylvania, third; Wisconsin, fourth. Time, 3:19.
Two-mile relay—Yale, won; Chicago, second; Michigan, third; Princeton, fourth; Pennsylvania, fifth. Time, 7:53, equals world's record, made in 1910 by Riley, Bromfield, Sheppard and Kiviat.
Four-mile relay—Cornell, won; Wisconsin, second; Pennsylvania, third.

CARL WIKANDER BIG NOISE IN BOWLING GAME

Wood Disturber Leads Field With Chamberlin Less Than One Point Behind First

Carl Wikander heads the average list of the Y. M. C. A. spring bowling league, with a figure of 190.13 for 24 games. This is the best bowling ever done on the alleys and would rank him high in any league.

J. C. Chamberlin is only a fraction of a point behind Wikander and the race between these two will be a warm one for the last two weeks of the season. George Cornes and Frank Benson are the only other two men in the 180 class and each dropped a point during the week.

Cyril Tinker, Henry Yap and John Gomes all improved their averages this week. Walter Williams climbed into the 170 class. Azevedo, Sima, Stayton and Atherton were among the bowlers who bettered their positions during the week. The complete averages are as follows:

St. Louis and 25th Win From Chinese and Lulus

Fans Witness Two Exciting Games at Athletic Park Yesterday Afternoon—Heinie Meyer Makes First Appearance in Honolulu Uniform—Lulus Lead 25th Infantry in Sixth Inning—Janssen Pitches Good Ball for St. Louis Squad

Bill Janssen, the elongated mound artist of the St. Louis baseball team, secured an abundance of glory yesterday afternoon at the local ball orchard, when he proceeded to send the Chinese players back to the bench without a run. The heaver was ably assisted by his teammates, and when the last man was out the Arctis aggregation had four scores.

Yesterday afternoon the St. Louis squad played classy ball throughout. It bunted, stroked, made sensational catches, and Janssen stopped three sure singles during the matinee, making eight assists. Hoke jumped up in the etheral waves and grabbed a hard liner from Kai Luke, and in the eighth he stopped another single that Kai Luke had headed for the suburban districts.

Luck Yee Hit Hard.
Luck Yee was on the mound for the Chinese and held the St. Louis team to 10 hits, each of the Saints gathering one, while Amy annexed two. The Chinese played good ball throughout behind their pitcher, but the opposing element had its batting clothes on and could not be denied.

St. Louis broke into the run column in the first canto on a single by Leong and Akana's double. Moriama singled in the third, but could not get around. Hoke singled in the fourth, but a fast double play, Kai Luke to Ah Lee to Cheong, retired the side. Hoon Ki had doubled in the first and Kan Yen in the second singled, but a double play, Amy to Akana, stopped the scoring.

Bill Nye jumped into the limelight in the sixth stanza when he hit a homer over the hills to Mary, the ball alighting on a roof in the vicinity of the left field fence, scoring Akana ahead of him. St. Louis scored again in the eighth on singles by Amy and Janssen and a double by Franco. The Chinese had a good chance in the sixth inning when Hoon Ki walked and Lang Akana hit a double to left center, but Peterson spoiled it by nailing Hoon Ki to third. The game was exciting throughout and there were a number of sparkling plays in the field.

Meyer Pitches Good Game.
Heinie Meyer of Waltham, Kaulhi and suburbs was almost a hero yesterday afternoon. For five innings he held the hard-hitting 25th Infantry team to two hits, both of them being garnered by Johnson. Then in the first of the sixth something happened and Parese and his followers had already planned for a festival.

Score—Honolulu 3, 25th Infantry 1. This may appear to be wrong to those who were not among the number yesterday, but that was the way it stood at the end of the first half of the sixth period. Johnson had scored Crafton in the first, but after that the 25th Infantry squad could not cross the rubber.

Carroll Gets Away Good.
It happened in the sixth. Carroll, up on Wildness, got away from the post in good shape going to the first quarter. Souza laid down a sacrifice hit and was safe on an error by Janssen; Carroll sprinted to third. Flizer standing his defeat, and he showed a burst of speed that might not hurt to have around at times. In his first appearance on the local lot this season, he showed to advantage and Parese has decided that he will keep him in line for future games.
